Mahalo Mondays: Hula's Modern Tiki Supports Southwest Center for HIV/AIDS

Councilman Tom Simplot and Dana Mule & Chris Delaney, owners of Hula's Modern Tiki, are continuing the Mahalo Mondays fundraising partnership in April by benefiting Southwest Center for HIV/AIDS. For the entire month, Hula's will donate 10 percent of every Monday's proceeds to Southwest Center for research and client services.

Hula's is located at 4700 N. Central Ave., on the northwest corner of Central and Highland avenues. Hula's has been serving modern island cuisine in uptown Phoenix since September, 2009. For more information on the restaurant or the Mahalo Mondays program, visit hulasmoderntiki.com.

The Southwest Center for HIV/AIDS is the largest clinical trial, education, behavioral health and nutrition support center dedicated to fighting HIV and AIDS in the Southwestern United States. The Center's vision, "leading the fight against HIV and AIDS" is carried out through their mission of reducing infection, improving quality of life and contributing to worldwide research.

Mahalo Mondays: Councilman Simplot Partners with Hula's Modern Tiki

Councilman Tom Simplot and Dana Mule & Chris Delaney, owners of Hula's Modern Tiki, are proud to announce a new fundraising partnership, Mahalo Mondays. Each month, Hula's will donate 10 percent of the proceeds from every Monday to a non-profit organization. This March, Mahalo Mondays kicks off by supporting the local chapter of the Red Cross, in support of Haiti relief efforts.

This is the first in a series of Mahalo Mondays partnerships between Simplot and Hula's restaurant to benefit nonprofit organizations. "Hula's is one of the newest restaurants to open in uptown Phoenix and I'm thrilled to partner with them for this worthy cause," said Simplot. "I invite residents to come visit this local business while helping a country in desperate need of our help." Co-owners Mule and Delaney are also looking forward to the kickoff. "We are so excited about this partnership with Councilman Simplot, which we hope will be the first step in our efforts to do something positive for our community, and to aid in the Haitian relief effort."

Hula's is located at 4700 N. Central Ave., on the northwest corner of Central and Highland avenues. Hula's has been serving modern island cuisine in uptown Phoenix since September, 2009. For more information on the restaurant or the Mahalo Mondays program, visit hulamoderntiki.com.
